ORQUESTA SINFÓNICA NACIONAL DE COLOMBIA

A series of talks with the National Symphony Orchestra of Colombia about the documentary Contra el olvido (Against oblivion)

With the arrival of the pandemic in 2020, many people supposed the National Symphony Orchestra was coming to its end. However, its musicians and executives engaged in an inspiring battle against oblivion. That way, they managed to transform complex challenges into huge opportunities which have rendered results that seemed impossible to reach.

Between March 8th and 12th, the embassies of Colombia and the National Symphony Orchestra of Colombia invites you to learn about this experience.
