Joint Communiqué # 84

Havana, Cuba, August 9, 2016

The delegations of the National Government and the FARC – EP hereby inform that today we have formalized the designation of the two experts delegated by the Dialogue Table to be part of the Commission that will define the guidelines for the statute of guarantees for the political parties and movements that declare themselves in the opposition.

This delegation represents an important progress to comply with the terms agreed in joint communiqué # 80, within the framework of which we agreed to move forward the request to convene the political parties and movements with legal status, two representative organizations of the opposition, as well as two experts delegated by the Table, to be part of the Commission that will define the guidelines for the statute of guarantees for the political parties and movements that declare themselves in the opposition.

The two experts selected by the Dialogue Table are messieurs Sergio de Zubiría and Pablo Julio Cruz.
